When my grandmother tells tales of when she was my age, her hands wave like the tree branches outside her childhood window, and she chatters like the river as it ran past her village. But when my grandmother finishes, she grows still as a summer’s night when she was young. So I listen and I see with my grandmother’s eyes. Then my grandmother starts a new tale about a garden she is growing. Her brown eyes are as warm as the earth where she is planting seeds. So I listen and I see with my grandmother’s eyes.
2. What does the grandmother in the poem do when she is finished telling a tale?

A. Worries
B. Sits still
C. Chatters
D. Waves her hands

3. What can you tell about the grandmother after reading the poem?

A. She is a patient listener.
B. She once lived in a large city.
C. She has detailed memories of her youth.
D. She does not like to talk much anymore.

4. Which words from the poem contain a simile?

A. . . . as it ran past her village.
B. Then my grandmother starts . . .
C. When my grandmother tells tales . . .
D. . . . her hands wave like the tree branches . . .

5. With which statement would the author of the poem most likely agree?

A. Grandmothers are good sources of interesting tales.
B. Worrying about things makes them go away faster.
C. Grandmothers were more valued in the past.
D. Adults do not have clear memories.

DIRECTIONS  Immigrants from many different countries and cultures have played an important part in the history of the United States. Immigrants have had a great effect on American society. Look carefully at the pictures. Answer the questions. This will help you write an essay later.
1. Describe what you see in each of the pictures.

2. What do the objects in the pictures represent?

3. Give some examples of how immigrants have contributed to American society.
Write an essay about the effect of immigrants on American society. Use your ideas from the Pre-Writing questions to add details to your writing. Make sure your essay is well organized and of sufficient length.
Checklist  ✔

* If a response is completely off-topic and has no contextual relevancy to the Writing prompt, it should be given the score point zero, regardless of how well written it is. However, since the Writing prompts are graphic-based with very little text, if a student chooses to write about a recognizable part of the graphic or only addresses the writing prompt, the response should be considered relevant and should be scored according to the rubric.
