

You are warmly invited to attend
a Conference of Buddhist Healthcare Chaplains

PASTORAL, SPIRITUAL AND RELIGIOUS CARE IN HEALTH: FACING THE FUTURE FOR BUDDHIST HEALTHCARE CHAPLAINCY

held at Taplow Court, Taplow, nr. Maidenhead SL6 0ER
on Tuesday 13th September 2016
10.30 am to 4.00 pm.

Aims:

Offering pastoral, spiritual or religious care to patients and staff struggling within health care settings has been a focus for a number of years amongst individuals within the Buddhist community.

The past ten years has seen the growth of a more tangible relationship with NHS England through the establishment of endorsement procedures and engagement with training and support for those starting out on and contributing to this work.

The conference aims to capture key challenges currently facing Buddhist Healthcare Chaplaincy, including themes such as:

- Maintaining and developing services we provide or can offer within health care
- Deepening our Buddhist practice in response to human needs emerging within health care

Bookings:

Please book by e-mail to keith@eskola.co.uk or by telephone 07931 532006.

Dana:

There is no charge for attending the conference, lunch and refreshments are provided. Those attending the conference are asked to make a donation towards running costs.

Organisers:

Buddhist Healthcare Chaplaincy Group

The conference will comprise presentations, panel discussions and workshops on areas such as:

- Community Chaplaincy
- End-of-life care
- Palliative care
- Mental health
- Education / training of chaplains.
