Article IV: Summary of Authority and Comprehensive Church Powers
A. Congregational Authority: The ultimate authority and responsibility for the conduct of the affairs of the Church rests with the Congregation which shall consist of the active members of the Church and shall function as a legally constituted body at its annual regular meetings and special meetings. The Congregation elects the Board and calls the Minister. It assigns to the Board and the Minister responsibility for achievement of the purposes of the Church, and it delegates power to the Board to perform the duties listed in Article VIII, and it delegates power to the Minister to perform the duties listed in Article X. The Congregation specifically reserves the right to approve the annual budget presented by the Board.

B. Board of Trustees’ Authority: The Board shall act on behalf of the Congregation, set and monitor ends and policies, and monitor the performance of the Minister.

Article V: Membership
§1. Becoming a Member: Any person, 16 years of age or over, in sympathy with the purposes of this Church, may become a member by signing the membership book after having consulted with a Minister in accordance with membership procedures.
§2. Affirmation of Membership: Every year, each member shall affirm their membership by making an identified financial contribution to the Church.
§3. Voting Rights: The right to vote at business meetings shall be reserved for members who have made an identified financial contribution within the prior 12 months of the date of such vote, unless the Minister has waived a member’s obligation to make an identified financial contribution due to pastoral concerns.
§4. Friends: Persons wishing to participate regularly in the Church, which includes making an identifiable financial contribution, but who specifically wish not to be members of the Church, shall be included in a list of Friends and receive the newsletter. Friends shall not be included in the count of members for the annual pledge to the UUA or its designated regional organizations.
§5. Membership Roll Review: The Church's membership rolls shall be reviewed annually.
§6. Termination: Membership may be terminated by written resignation delivered to the Church office, by failure to affirm, or by death. Termination by resignation is effective upon receipt. Termination by failure to affirm is effective 30 days after notice of failure to affirm has been sent to the last known address of the member involved.
§7. Termination for Cause: A member may also be terminated for cause when a person’s actions are contrary to the Congregation’s purposes and program by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board with an appeal available to the Congregation, which may overturn a decision by the Board to terminate by a majority vote at a special or annual meeting.

Article VI: Meetings
§1. Sunshine Clause/Open Meetings: All meetings of the Board, Ministry Leadership Team (MLT), committees, working groups, ministry teams, and task forces shall be open to all members and friends, except in the limited cases when those bodies go into executive session. §2. Annual Meeting: The annual meeting of the Church shall be a business meeting held in May, at a time and place determined by the Board, unless otherwise ordered by a vote of the Church.
§3. Special Meetings: There may be additional special meetings of the Church. They may be called by the Board or by written petition to the Secretary of the Board signed by at least ten percent of the voting members. §5. Quorum: Unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws, a quorum at any annual or special meeting shall consist of 35 members or 10 percent of the membership, as verified by the Secretary, whichever is higher.
§6. Proxy: No member may vote by proxy at any meeting.
§7. Act of the Church: The majority vote at any annual or special meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Church, unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws.

§8. Voting: Unless otherwise specified in these Bylaws, votes at the annual meeting or any special meeting may be conducted by show of voting paddles, at the Moderator’s discretion.

§9. Real Property Votes: The encumbrance, sale or transfer of any real property of the Church shall require a two-thirds vote of the total membership of the Congregation at a special or annual meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, real property not utilized for ongoing Church operations, such as that received from a bequest or other gift, may be sold or otherwise transferred subject to the same congregational approval process with respect to the Church’s annual budget. The Church shall acquire real property by purchase only by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a legally convened special or annual meeting of the Church; fifty-one percent of the total membership, as verified by the Secretary, shall constitute a quorum.

§10. Personal Property Votes: The sale or transfer of tangible personal property owned by the Church whose total is in excess of $500 shall require authorization by the Board. In addition, the sale or transfer of any of the Church’s personal property of historical value, including without limitation antique furniture, paintings, or sculptures, shall require approval by a majority vote of the Congregation at a special or annual meeting.

Article VII: Elections

§1. Election: The Officers and Trustees shall be elected at the annual meeting. Election shall be by ballot, except that if there is only one candidate for an office, or if the number of candidates for an office is equal to the number of identical offices to be filled, then the election for that office may, at the Moderator’s discretion, be done as described in Article VI, Section 8.

§2. Term of Office: The President shall be elected for a term of one year. Other Trustees, as well as the Moderator, shall be elected for a term of two years, so that the Board will consist of Trustees serving staggered terms of office. All Officers and Trustees, excluding the Moderator, are limited to serving two consecutive terms of the appropriate duration, plus the balance of the year of any unexpired term if elected to fill a vacancy. With the exception of the Moderator, Officers and Trustees may not be elected to the same office for a third full term until a period of one year has passed. An immediate former President may be duly elected to the Board for one two-year term if the former President did not serve on the Board immediately before becoming President. A President may therefore serve a maximum of four consecutive years on the Board (two one-year terms as President and one two-year term as a Trustee). Officers shall serve for the specified terms or until their successors are elected. Their terms shall begin on the first day of the month of July following the annual meeting at which they are elected.

§3. Qualifications: Only members of the Church who are qualified to vote and have been for at least one year preceding the election, shall be eligible for election as President, Vice President, or Treasurer. Other Trustees must be members of the Church who are qualified to vote.

§4. Nominating Methods: Members may become candidates for office by one of the following three methods: (1) by petition to the Board or the Nominating Committee; (2) by solicitation by the Nominating Committee; or (3) by nomination from the floor at the election meeting. Under any of these methods no one shall be nominated without their prior consent. Candidates shall be encouraged to develop and disseminate a platform or other statement of their views.

§5. Nomination by Petition: A member shall become a candidate by submitting to the Board or the Nominating Committee a petition signed by him/herself and five other members. With the nominee’s consent, another member may circulate and submit the petition. The Board or the Nominating Committee shall verify that all petition signers are voting members and then place the petitioner's name on the list of candidates. For regular elections, petitions must be submitted at least one month before the annual meeting.

§6. Nominating Committee: The Nominating Committee shall consist of five members elected at the Annual Meeting for a term of two years, terms to be staggered; there shall be no ex officio member(s) of the Nominating Committee. Candidates for the Nominating Committee may be nominated by petition or by the Nominating Committee. In the event of a vacancy, the Nominating Committee may appoint a member(s) to serve the remainder of such vacated term. The appointment of such member(s) must receive a majority vote of the Nominating Committee. Any vacancy so filled shall be open for election at the next Annual Meeting. No member of the Nominating Committee who has served a full two-year term shall be re-elected until a period of one year has passed.

§7. Nominating Committee Duties: The Committee shall solicit input regarding candidates for open elected office from the Board of Trustees, the Minister(s) and the Congregation. The Nominating Committee shall prepare ballot(s) of qualified members as candidates for Officers and for the next Nominating Committee itself. The ballot(s) shall be presented for vote of the Congregation at the Annual Meeting and shall be included as part of the official notice of the meeting.

§8. Election Timetable: As soon as possible, but at least one month before the Annual Meeting, the Committee shall publicize a list of current candidates. The final list of candidates who will appear on the ballot shall be publicized at least two weeks before the election. At no point in this process should the Committee or any notice indicate the candidate's method of nomination (i.e., by petition or by recruitment of the Nominating Committee).

§9. Vacancies: Vacancies of elected Officers, other than the President, shall be filled by the following process. By announcing the vacancy, encouraging petitions, and soliciting possible candidates, the Nominating Committee shall develop a list of candidates for the vacant office. This list shall be presented to the Board. In order to be elected, a candidate must receive a majority vote of the Board. Any vacancy shall be open for election at the next annual meeting.
