

Restorative Inquiry Community Sessions

Members of the Nova Scotia Home for Colored Children Restorative Inquiry Council of Parties will be holding community sessions across the province to share about the work of the Restorative Inquiry.

This is an opportunity for community members to learn more, ask questions and discover further ways to participate in the ongoing work of the Restorative Inquiry.

Please pre-register by contacting info@restorativeinquiry.ca or 902.722.1324
Light refreshments will be served.
